For his exhibition titled Patrimoine - forthcoming (dec. 8th, 2017), Guillaume Maraud rouses the features of an unsteady contemporary perception.

While solitary references are in overload, numerous opportunities to experiment the deficit of attention are also presented. The acceleration of current libidinal cycles implies that the true concern with making an exhibition is it cannot free itself from its programmed disappearance and transformation into data.

Guillaume Maraud was born in 1988. He lives and works in Paris.

Recent presentations of his work include Indipidenza, Roma (solo) ; Edouard Montassut, Paris (solo) ; Belami, Los Angeles ; Queer Thoughts, New York ; Rongwrong, Amsterdam.
